“
Thank you for your excellent training programmes. I have learned more in the ACTP programme with the Forton Group than in every other course I have ever done, put together.”

The better leadership development journey

Leaders are under greater pressure to deliver more for less.

Develop great leadership and you develop the whole organisation and its culture.

Here at Forton, we deliver the leadership skills that get your organisation to its destination.

Learn in the classroom or at your desk

- Short workshops to year-long programmes
- Self-paced or managed study
- Local or international events
- CMI-accredited leadership development qualification options

“Your ability to get the group working together is amazing, and your honest and open feedback truly constructive.”

More impactful leadership results

Specialists in leadership and coaching, Forton provides consulting, research, coaching and training, for leaders, managers and teams.

More than knowledge, or competences, great leadership is 90% from the inside, with the meaningful leadership tools and practical skills to achieve -

- Higher performance
- Better employee engagement
- Better relationships

Invest in this journey and achieve high returns for your organisation.

“Really can't fault it. The best example of how to integrate learning into doing, and theory into experience.”
